Helen bragged that:

👉 Ceilidh went BOB at the Santa Clara Valley Kennel Club with Kelly handling.

We unfortunately forgot to ask for brags at the meeting and this was the only brag I received by mail.

40th Anniversary Show, One of our 4 (that's right 4) wonderful braces!

40th Anniversary Show, An amazing team effort considering some of us have trouble getting just one Siberian to go the way we ask!

NCSHC 40th Anniversary Specialty Show

The Northern California Siberian Husky Club celebrated its 40th Anniversary in grand style with our first ever back-to-back shows. Our Judges for this special event were Ms Janis Church Stadler and Mrs. Maryl Foster with Ms Brenda Wilde Valletta judging sweepstakes on Saturday and Ms. Kristy Siefkin judging Junior Showmanship.

Table displaying trophies, table favors and centerpieces from past specialties

Friday began early for club members and we began setting up for the afternoon specialty. Work that had begun on Thursday continued throughout the morning and by the afternoon we were ready to begin our very first Friday specialty. Judge Janis Church Stadler began by officiating over the dogs, selecting Couloir's No Urban Legend* from the Open class as Winner's Dog. Reserve Winner's Dog went to the 6-9 Month puppy, Lobolair's Domino Effect.

Next it was Judge Maryl Foster's turn to judge the bitches. Maryl's choice for Winner's Bitch came from the Bred by exhibitor class, Karamad's Moonstruck at Sundace, finishing her championship. Reserve Winner's Bitch from the Open class went to Syntari's Mediterranean Gem.

Janis was then back in the ring to judge Best of Breed which she awarded to GCh. Ch. Tunguska's Swingin' On A Star. Best of Opposite went to Ch. Kayenta's Wildestar North Wind. Select Dog was GCh. Ch. Echo Call's Bourne To Be Wild, Select Bitch GCh. Ch. Kayenta's Rendezvous In Rio and Awards of Merit Winners were Ch. Tunguska Ice Flame and Ch. Nuggetuk's Glissade.

Our evening hospitality was our traditional barbecue with a twist. This year to make the barbecue extra special instead of our usual hot dogs and hamburgers we served tri tip grilled to perfection by club members Josh and Bonnie Wilson along with the help of William and Bonnie Harr. Club members added to the barbecue by bringing salads and desserts. The highlight of the desserts was homemade short bread cookies, made by club member Judy Tamagni, with the club's special 40th anniversary logo printed on top. The cookies were not only delicious but also added a commemorative touch.

The next day began bright and early with Sweeps Judge Brenda Wilde Valletta and a good size entry of youngsters and oldsters. Brenda selected Couloir's No Urban Legend as Best Puppy in Sweeps and Lodgepole's Shoshone Sunrise as Best of Opposite. Then it was on to the Veterans with our oldest entrant being 15 years young. Brenda chose Ch. Snowycreek's Third Timz A Charm and Best in Sweeps and Ch. Sedona's Duke of Hazard as Best of Opposite Sex.

The ring was then taken over by our Junior Showmanship Judge Kristy Siefkin. Although we had an entry of only 2 the judge was quite impressed the skills of both entrants, awarding Best Junior to Brook Bigley handling Couloir's I Fought The Law. As I side note both of our juniors were very impressive throughout the weekend as Brooke handled the Winner's Dog on Saturday and Wolf Warren handled his Bred by Dog to Winner's Dog on Sunday.

Then it was time for Judge Maryl Foster to once again step into the ring to begin judging dogs. Maryl selected Kayenta's Millennium from the Bred by Exhibitor class as her Winner's Dog with Iceberg's Monarch Pass, SDX, also from the Bred by Exhibitor class going Reserve Winner's Dog.

Next up was Janis Church Stadler to officiate over the girls. Winner's Bitch went to the Reserve Winner from Saturday, Syntari's Mediterranean Gem, finishing her championship. Reserve Winner's Bitch was awarded to Secondwind's Sophie of Khovaki from the Open class.

Our lovely entry of Breed dogs and bitches entered the ring for Judge Maryl Foster. After all were put through their paces our BOS winner from Saturday came out on top, Ch. Tuguska's Ice Flame was Best of Breed. The Best of Opposite Sex winner was GCh. Ch. Kayenta's Rendezvous in Rio. Select Dog and Bitch were awarded to GCh. Ch. Echo Call's Bourne To Be Wild and Ch. Artika's Trailside It's All About Me. Award of Merit winner's were Veteran Dog Ch. Sedona's Duke of Hazard and Ch. Charlyn's Flor D'Luna.

Thorough out the weekend we had several special events and displays. For the first time our club was on Facebook and Show Chair Donna Beckman ran a club trivia quiz through facebook and the club website. Our Historian Judy Tamagni set up wonderful tables full of club history, albums of past winners, catalogs from past shows, old newsletters and many trophies, table favors, and centerpieces from past specialties. Special commemorative leashes were handed out to all the exhibitors. Trophies featured our special Ruby Anniversary logo. Past members and our 4 Charter members (Phyllis Brayton, Karl & Jo Geletich, and Lynn Olds) were recognized and honored.

Saturday night we all settled into Ricky's restaurant for our banquet. Wonderful table favors and centerpieces (made by our very talented club members) were displayed thanks to Jessica Tamagni. One of the highlights of the banquet were two wonderful cakes made by our very own Judy Tamagni (of the famous shortbread cookies) featuring our special Ruby Anniversary logo. The other highlight of the banquet was the cheesy prizes won by those who participated in the online trivia game.

Thanks to all the Judges, exhibitors, club members, and guests who have made our club specialties so successful over the years. It goes without saying that we couldn't do this without each and every one of you. Hope to see everyone for the next 40 years! And for sure back in California in 2013!!
