NCSHC Twenty Seventh Sanctioned Match, Plan "B"

By Kelly Collins

July 10, 2016 found members and friends of the Northern California Siberian Husky Club gathered at Richardson Park in Vallejo for the 27th Sanctioned Match. We could not have asked for better weather with mild temperatures throughout the day.

The day began at 10AM with a well attended handling workshop. Club members Lori Chou and myself put several exhibitors who wanted a pre-match warmup through their paces. Getting hands on and moving practice, everyone was ready to go for the match start at 11AM.

Match Judge Diane Collings stepped into the ring to begin judging an entry of 7 puppies. Nanook's Red Moon of Wolf was awarded Best Puppy in Match with litter brother Nanook's Evolution of Wolf taking Best of Opposite Sex Puppy in Match.

With a good size entry of adults, Diane selected Pachodi's Insurgent of Articgrace from the 12-18 Month class as her Best in Match Adult. Charlyn's Flynn was awarded Best of Opposite Sex Adult.

Regular class judging was followed by Non-Regular judging with many Veterans, Sled Dogs and Altered Dogs in attendance. After all were evaluated, Nanook's Firestorm of Wolf was awarded Best in Veteran Classes. Arcticgrace's Buddha Of Jedeye, SD won Best in Sled Dog classes and Kochevoey's Flight Plan "Pilot" was Best in Altered classes. The judging ended with 3 brace entries, 1 team (all wonderfully presented) and finally 1 parade of rescue entry.

After judging exhibitors settled in for lunch and raffle. The raffle was a big hit with many Siberian related and unique items including a Giants cooler with several chocolate bars, a doggie first aid kit, and a Siberian head eye glass holder to name a few.

As Match Chair I want to thank all the exhibitors for bringing out their wonderful dogs and making the match such a success, special thanks to Kathy Miyoshi for once again driving down from Reno to support our match. Thanks to all the club members who once again worked tirelessly to make the match a success. To our Judge Diane Collings for her easy manner with the dogs and exhibitors making the day great for dogs and exhibitors, to Donna Beckman and all her help as the Match Secretary, and lastly to Judy Tamagni for the wonderful photos, all match photos are courtesy of Judy.

We hope to see everyone in 2017 at the Club's 19th & 20th Biennial Specialty Shows in April.

TITLE COMPLETION: Grand Championship

GCh. Ch. Serenade's Winter Melody

After finishing in 2014, with very limited showing, Piper picked up 8 pts towards her Grand Championship. In March of 2015, with Selena out on hiatus, I entered Piper under the Judge that had finished her championship. Thinking just to support the judge, I only entered her the one day of the 4 day weekend, Piper went Best of Breed and picked up a 5 pt major towards her Grand Championship!!! Hmm, guess it was time to get a bit more serious about finishing her Grand. So again with limited showing, Piper went on to win Best of Breed the following month for a 4pt major, a 4pt major select at Woofstock in June and finished her Grand Championship in July at Del Monte KC also going Best of Breed Owner Handler and on to an Owner Handler Group One!!

Piper is always fun to show, although doesn't always show well for others, but likes to complain loudly when not the center of attention at dog shows. Piper may still be shown on a very limited basis, but for now she will remain home and root on her cousin Selena and brother Logan, quietly!

This was Scout's last obedience competition and he retired in style going High In Trial both days of the Siberian Husky Club of Greater Chicago shows. He continues to have a physical sit problem so we are no longer pursuing Open Obedience. Scout is such a sweet, willing dog and he loves to show, so we will continue to compete in Rally Advanced and Rally Excellent as well as tracking as we chase that elusive VST title.

GCh. Ch. Melrose Walk Like A Lady

At the Rocky Mountain Siberian Husky Club specialty in 2014 I inquired about Selena, owned and bred by Jody & Leslie Carpenter of Melrose. I knew they were concentrating on showing the litter brother, was a bit surprised that Selena was not entered, and asked if they might be willing to let her come to California as I had just finished Piper and had nothing to show. They were perfectly willing to let her come but I soon found out why she was not entered. When they brought her to the show for me to see, had just seen pictures of her to that point, her coat was completely eaten (chewed away) from both hip bones, down both rear legs and most of the tail. Oh boy! Almost changed my mind but then I saw her move. She was blowing coat so I thought "ok the hair will grow back with the new coat". Tail was a question as we all know that the tail doesn't always shed with the coat but could still show her with a chewed tail. One and a half months after arriving, and still looking quite chewed Selena picked up a major reserve! One month later Selena was WB/BOS back to back for her first to points with me (she came with 1 point). She took several major reserves, struggled looking for majors but completed her championship a year and a half later owner handled! And as suspected she is in California to stay!! She is well over half way to achieving her Bronze Grand Championship.
