GOLDEN GATE KENNEL CLUB

By Kelly Collins

January 28 and 29 marked the 2017 Golden Gate Kennel Club dog show. Friday before the show Donna Beckman, Helen Hamilton and I headed to the Cow Palace to set up for the weekend. This year the club had 4 members with a total of 6 dogs entered and 1 guest dog.

Although one of the dogs did not make it, the remaining dogs on the club bench did us proud ending up with Winners Bitch/Best of Winners both days. Winners Dog both days, Best Of Opposite Sex both days, Select Bitch both days and Best Owner Handler and Best Puppy.

The Golden Gate Kennel Club is a great education opportunity for the club as it is a benched show, only one of three benched shows still held in the U.S. The big one, Westminster Kennel Club, and the Kennel Club of Philadelphia being the other, making the Golden Gate Kennel Club Show the only one still being held on the West Coast. Dogs are benched (sitting at the show) for the entire day. This gives the public plenty of opportunity to meet with the dogs and the club members opportunity to talk about our favorite subject, our dogs and the Siberian breed in general.

After two days dogs and exhibitors are usually exhausted, grateful this show only comes around once a year, and starting to look forward to the next year.
