2017 NCSHC Biennial Specialty

By Kelly Collins

On April 28 and 29 Siberians from many different states as well as Canada made their way to Inn Marin in Novato for the Northern California Siberian Husky Club's 19th and 20th Biennial Specialties and 9th sweepstakes. This year's judges were Terry Siglar, Carol Nas, and Kelly Boyd judging sweeps. A big thank you to Terry for stepping in at the last minute for Carol Deeks who unfortunately was ill and unable to make it out for the show. The club continues its well wishes to Carol as she continues to recover.

This year's show was dedicated to the memory of long time club member Phyllis Brayton who we lost earlier this year. Phyllis was the pioneer in getting the club recognized by AKC and chaired many of the first specialty shows. Phyllis will be missed by many in the dog show world.

Friday afternoon began with Terry stepping in to judge the dogs. Once again we could not have asked for better weather for our show weekend, beautiful warm, sunny days with a nice breeze to keep the day from getting too hot. Terry's pick for Winners Dog was Nanook's Alberta Clipper with Reserve winners dog going to Kayenta's The Joker.

Carol then took over the ring to judge the bitches, selecting Couloir's Snowonder as her winners bitch to finish her championship. Reserve winners bitch was awarded to Hidden Treasure's Blue Ice Chip CGCA CGCU.

Terry was back in the ring for the Breed judging and his final nod went to GCHS Karnovanda's Stephen Coldbear for Best of Breed. Icewind's Texas Sweet Tea was awarded Best of Opposite Sex.

Friday night the club hosted a BBQ Banquet. This has become a big hit with our exhibitors. All guests left with a pawprint soap table favor and a lucky few took home the candle holder centerpiece (a siberian/wolf scene under a wine glass) handmade by Show Chair, Judy Tamagni, Donna Beckman, and myself.

Saturday began bright and early with Kelly Boyd judging sweepstakes. Kelly's pick for Best in Puppy Sweeps was Highlander's Perfect Cut Diamond. Best of Opposite in Puppy Sweeps went to Karnovanda's Surreptitious. Then it was on to our veterans. Best in Veteran sweeps was awarded to GCH Karamad's Moonstruck At Sundance. Best of Opposite Sex winner was Sikoia's Makaio of Polii.

2017 Biennial Specialty

Regular class judging began with Carol Nash stepping in to judge the dogs. Carol's final selection for winners dog was Charlyn's Thief In The Night At Royal Oak with reserve winners dog going to Kayenta's Thirst For Adventure.

Terry Siglar once again took over the ring to judge the bitches. Terry's choice for winners bitch was Happyheart Bear Bella Ms Perfect. Reserve Winners bitch was Karnovanda's Surreptitious.

At the lunch break Terry stepped in to judge our junior showmanship class awarding Best Junior to Selah Fuller showing Charlyn's Partner in Crime.

The Best of Breed entry of 13 dogs and 13 bitches was judged by Carol and her final choice for Best of Breed was GCHB Sagebrush's Red Wine and Blue CGC. GCH Melrose Walk Like a Lady was Carol's choice for Best of Opposite Sex.

As clean up began raffle chairs Lori Chou and Randee McQueen pulled tickets for the amazing display of raffle items, sending many home with wonderful new treasures.

The evening ended with many exhibitors gathering at the hotel restaurant to catch up with old friends, make new acquaintances and have a nice relaxing evening of visiting.

The members of the Northern California Siberian Husky Club would like to thank all of our exhibitors who made the trip to our specialty. We can not hold a successful show without all of you. Your participation if very much appreciated.

Hope to see everyone next year in Colorado!
